Saturday April 6 (2:30-3:30 PM)

Manoa Public Library Green Building Tour.

In February 2013, the new Manoa Public Library was awarded the coveted Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold Certification established by the U. S. Green Building Council (USGBC) and verified by the Green Building Certification Institute.

Discover the many sustainable features of your local library in this tour led by Manoa Public Library architect Gary Kawakami and Branch Manager Christel Collins. Meet at the library entrance. Children ages 10 and under must be accompanied by an adult.

Saturday April 13 (10:30-11:30 AM)

Create books with recycled material.

Eco-crafter Evelyn Nakamura demonstrates how to transform scraps of paper, cereal boxes, and wall paper into 2 different and impressive mini-books. Use them as little journals, cards or instant displays. Samples of other kinds of mini-books will also be shared. Adults only; registration required (call 988-0459)

Saturday April 20 (10:00-12:00 PM)

Green Saturday. Malama Manoa will demonstrate tumbler and worm composters, and exhibit popular chicken types for urban living. Baby Kalo, Ti, and Ko will be given away, or you can plant your own. Enjoy recyclable craft activities for all ages. Bring a HI-5 can or bottle to receive a Lucky Draw ticket.

Monday April 22 Earth Day 10 AM-5 PM

Walk or Bicycle to the Library and get a free DVD rental AND a Lucky Draw ticket! The parking lot will be open—the goal is to fill it with bicycles.

Saturday April 27 (10 AM-5 PM)

Recycled Reads Booksale. A variety of books, CDs, and DVDs, all at affordable prices. All proceeds benefit the Friends of Manoa Library.

Displays. City and County of Honolulu Recycling Display located in the foyer entrance of the library (April 1-30). Artist Jacqueline Rush Lee exhibits 'Compendium: Book Sculptures' located in the main lobby and library (April 1-22).
